GIVING MONEY TO GOD'S WORK (II Cor. 8,9)

1. Giving is based on grace, not on law. (8:1)
2. Giving is a privilege, not a task. (8:4)
3. You may give whether rich or poor. (8:2; I Cor. 16:1,2)
4. Giving begins with yourself, then your possessions. (8:5; II Cor. 12:14)
5. Giving should be a response to the example of Christ. (8:9)
6. You should give from what you have, not from what you don't have. (8:12)
7. Giving should be done willingly and cheerfully, not under compulsion. (8:12; 9:7)
8. Giving does result in blessing, though not necessarily financial. (9:6)
9. God will provide for our basic material needs, including the means to give to God's work. (9:8-11)
