Jim Tulford Prophecy. 4-16-87

- I (Isaiah 48:3-5) God predicts future
- A) (Micah 5:2) - Birth from Bethlehem
 - B) (Daniel 9) - actual time when messiah would enter into Jerusalem
 - C) (Zech 9:9) - how Christ would enact his ministry.
 - D) (Psalm 41) - How Christ would be betrayed
 - E) (Zech 11) - Price of betrayer.
 - F) (Luke 24:44) - (vs 44) - Not only prophets, Psalms, also the Law.
(vs 46) - Christ proved how his death was necessary.
- (Psalm 22) - most explicit description of Christ's death.

The whole Psalm is devoted to predictive prophecy.

Why not about David.

- ① person is dying a torturous death.
David died peacefully
- ② David was never in the clutches of the enemy as this Psalm says
- ③ Christ says himself on the cross, that this Psalm is about him

Why did Jesus have to die?
Describe the Life of Christ

(vs 3-5) Christ affirms faith.

(vs 6-) People despise Christ - Jews did.

(vs 10) affirmation of faith.

vs 13 - Describes Crucifixion developed by Phoenicians in 600 BC.
Never practiced before 600 BC.

(vs 14) - describes dehydration - soaked
with perspiration,
Ligaments would snap

Heart is working overtime... Sometimes even the heart would burst.

John - blood + water came out of his side,

potsherd - no moisture left in pottery.

tongue cleaves to jaw. eye dehydration tongue swells + sticks to mouth

pierced my hands + feet.

We have copies of the Septuagint. + the Septuagint has Psalm 22 word for word.

Dead sea scrolls - fragments of every book in bible except 2 books

Some of us would rather seek than find truth because we don't know What is God like (2)
what God's life.

Isaiah 53: -

Christ bore all of God's wrath which we deserve.
