

4. What are some of your disciple's negative character traits and typical sins? Next to each one, write down how this trait or sin tendency could be changed by God into a valuable strength.

driven to make money, get prestige, power uses people to get ahead
or only does what is absolutely necessary to keep job avoids close relationships + vulnerability is irresponsible, fragmented wants stimulation or to "veg" out = TV lives from one vacation to the next = recreation is God

5. What stewardship (gifts, roles, talents, opportunities) has God given to your disciple?

6. Write a paragraph about how you can help your disciple begin (or continue) to understand and pursue this vision.

B. Interview

Interview someone you consider a good discipler. Write out the main thoughts/insights.

Some sample questions:

- How much time do you spend thinking about and praying for your disciple?
- How do you spend your time together (structure, quantity, content, etc)?
- Describe your relationship with your disciple.
- How has your understanding about discipling changed since you first began?
- What was your biggest failure and what did you learn?
- What has contributed the most to the successes you've had in discipling?
