

Romans 6:14-23

week 9

Assignment # 9 due 12/4/87

-----memorize 6:14,23-----

1. Who is your master when you're under law? Why?

-----

2. How does grace motivate us to NOT sin? Why not enjoy the passing pleasures of sin since we've been forgiven?

-----

3. Our old and new life are both compared to slavery. Why is this an appropriate analogy? (How does slavery to God differ from slavery to sin?)

-----

4. Why is it impossible to be our own master--enslaved neither to sin nor to God?

-----

5. 17 What should commitment to "that form of teaching" (ie. the Word) result in?

Romans 6:14-23

6. :21 Think of one of your favorite sins you used to enjoy as a non-christian. What benefits did it give you then? Has your perspective changed?

---

7. :22 Name some benefits in your life now that you have been freed from sin.

---

8. :23 This is one of the most concise verses concerning our problem and God's solution. See also Rom 3:23 and Titus 3:4-7. Find some more verses about God's grace, love and mercy, and consider what attitudes a person who is under grace should have.
