

SELF-EVALUATION QUESTIONNAIRE

Name _____ Date _____

FAMILY

Directions: Answer each question by circling the most appropriate answer. Don't be tempted to respond untruthfully to put yourself in a more positive light, or to say what you think people want to hear-answer honestly. If none of the options are quite right, choose the one that is closest, and put a question mark in the margin next to it.

1. I have a (minimal, average, thorough) understanding of what the Bible says are my specific roles and responsibilities regarding my family.
2. Having a fairly good idea what my roles and responsibilities are toward my family, I feel I am doing an (ineffective, fair, good, extremely good) job of assuming those roles and responsibilities.
3. I pray for each member of my family (yes, no)
4. I have gained strong convictions regarding the following, and can defend my position on each intelligently and biblically (check):

	Conviction	Can Defend
Extra-marital sex	----	----
Divorce	----	----
Homosexuality	----	----
Abortion	----	----

If you are SINGLE, no longer living under your parents' authority, or if you are DIVORCED or SEPARATED, complete these statements:

5. I have learned how to relate with the opposite sex in purity, with discretion and in brotherly love (yes, no, still need more input).
6. I am (not at all, not very, somewhat, strongly, totally) convinced that marriage to a non-Christian would be a big mistake. Therefore, I date non-Christians (never, rarely, sometimes, often).
7. I have a (minimal, sub-par, average, thorough) understanding of what to look for in a marriage partner, and I have a (minimal, sub-par, average, thorough) understanding of how to determine whether it would be God's will for me to marry a certain individual.
8. I am (very anxious and depressed, somewhat depressed, okay, satisfied, very satisfied) about being single right now, and I (do not, grudgingly, willingly, enthusiastically) look at my singleness as a temporary (or permanent) gift from God.
9. I am currently taking (no, a little, quite a bit, full) advantage of my singleness to broaden my ministry.

If you are MARRIED, with or without children, complete these statements:

10. I have a (minimal, average, thorough) understanding of the differences between the world's plan for marriage and God's plan for marriage.

11. My spouse and I have attend marriage counseling together. Name of counselor:_____ When attended:_____

12. On a scale of 1 to 10 (10 = absolutely true), how true is this statement for you? "I unconditionally accept my spouse as God's primary provision for my interpersonal and sexual needs. I have no inclination to look elsewhere." _____

13. I am (not very, somewhat, very, wildly) willing to recommit myself to remain faithful to my spouse.

14. On a scale of 1 to 10, how certain are you of the following statement?

"Ten years from now I will still have been totally faithful to my spouse."

15. I have (no, weak, average, strong, very strong) convictions that marriage forms an unbreakable unity and that divorce is no option for my spouse and me.

16. I see my ministry to my spouse (and household) as a (low, average, high, highest) priority, and in practice, my attitudes and actions demonstrate this level of priority, (not very well, sub-par, average, well, exactly).

17. I set aside specific times to spend quality time with my spouse, concentrating on communication: (Check applicable ones):

____daily      ____weekly      ____monthly      ____yearly

18. I am making a (minimal, average, good, extensive) effort to become a "student" of my spouse-to be the world's greatest authority on "what makes him (or her) tick."

If you are a HUSBAND, with or without children, answer this question:

19. On a scale of 1 to 10, how true are the following statements for you?

22. I have a (minimal, sub-par, average, clear, very clear) idea of how our family can function together as a ministry team.

23. On a scale of 1 to 10, rate how closely the following statement is true of you: "I see my children as unique gifts from God, genuine assets, and a godly heritage through whom the next generation can be influenced for Christ"_____

Now rate yourself as to how closely your actions reflect that conviction_____

24. My spouse and I (will soon begin, are beginning, started some time ago) to disciple our children through a specific discipling program.

25. My spouse and I do a (lousy, fair, pretty good, great) job of disciplining our children and holding them accountable for their responsibilities.

26. One of our prime objectives as we disciple our children is to integrate them into our family's unique ministry team (not true, somewhat true, very true, exactly right). So far, I would say we have succeeded in this (poorly, fairly average, well, very well).

27. I am making a (minimal, average, good, extensive) effort to become a student of my children-to be the world's greatest authority on "what makes them tick".

28. On a scale of 1 to 10, how true is the following statement for you?

"I continually seek unity, harmony, and understanding with my children through honest, sensitive communication_____"
