CHRISTIAN FUNDAMENTALS

Directions: Answer each question by circling the most appropriate answer. Don't be tempted to respond untruthfully to put yourself in a more positive light, or to say what you think people want to hear—answer honestly. If none of the options are quite right, choose the one that is closest, and put a question mark in the margin next to it.

1. I am (not sure, fairly sure, positive) that if I were to die today, I would immediately go to heaven.
2. I am (not sure, fairly sure, positive) that, before I met Christ and invited Him into my life, I was a sinner headed for hell.
3. I have a (minimal, average, thorough) knowledge about the many important changes that occurred in me after I asked Christ into my life.
4. I have a (minimal, average, thorough) understanding of how to be filled with the Holy Spirit.
5. I have a (minimal, average, thorough) knowledge of the tension that exists between my new nature and my old nature and why I still struggle with temptation even though I am a "new creation".
6. I have a (minimal, average, thorough) knowledge about the activities I can undertake that will help me grow spiritually in a balanced, steady fashion.
7. I have a (minimal, average, thorough) understanding of why it is important for me to be involved actively in fellowship with other Christians.
8. I attend HC (never, rarely, sometimes, frequently).
9. I read the Bible (never, rarely, sometimes, frequently).
10. I (don't understand, have some idea, know very well) what people mean when they call the Bible the "Word of God".
11. I know that prayer is simply talking to God, and I don't have any real difficulty doing it (agree, disagree).
12. Right now, I could do a (poor, fair, good, great) job of telling another person how to become a Christian if the opportunity presented itself.
13. I feel (petrified, hesitant, willing, strongly motivated) about telling others how they might come to a saving knowledge of Christ.
14. I am (not sure, fairly sure, positive) that adversity is a normal part of the Christian life. When I experience trials, I (never, rarely, sometimes, frequently) get mad at God and (never, rarely, sometimes, frequently) go to Him for help.
15. I know that Satan is real (yes, no) and that he seeks my downfall (yes, no), and I have (no, some, very extensive) knowledge about how to resist him.
16. I have a workable program in place that helps me set and reach personal goals successfully while managing my day-to-day activities effectively (agree, disagree, "sort of").
17. I see myself as having the potential of being (minimally, somewhat, very, extremely) motivated to be active in pursuing my spiritual development and my relationship with God.

1. Determine your disciple's level of spiritual growth
2. Determine your disciple's next crucial step of growth + formulate a training objective
3. Design curriculum that will help her reach that training objective
4. Develop an evaluation so you will know when objective is reached
