

God is Perfect and

Plan B is God's ~~intended~~ <sup>can</sup> plan for man. God ~~can~~ <sup>can</sup> accept us on ~~the~~ <sup>only one</sup> ~~basis~~ <sup>basis</sup> - are we perfect or not? If we are, then we are acceptable to his kingdom. If we are not, then he must pass judgement on us. Instead of judging us, however, he condemned the only perfect man that ever lived (his own son Jesus Christ). If Jesus was perfect, then whose sin was condemned? It was our sin, and he passed judgement on all of it. ~~through the sacrifice of Jesus.~~ Therefore Christ's sacrifice was God's revelation of grace, and a vehicle through which he could accept imperfect people, and not accept their sin.

God is Perfect and

~~Plan B is not a backup plan. It is a different plan. It is a plan that is not dependent on the success of plan A. It is a plan that is designed to succeed on its own terms. It is a plan that is not subject to the whims of fate. It is a plan that is not subject to the whims of chance. It is a plan that is not subject to the whims of luck. It is a plan that is not subject to the whims of fortune. It is a plan that is not subject to the whims of destiny. It is a plan that is not subject to the whims of providence. It is a plan that is not subject to the whims of fate. It is a plan that is not subject to the whims of chance. It is a plan that is not subject to the whims of luck. It is a plan that is not subject to the whims of fortune. It is a plan that is not subject to the whims of destiny. It is a plan that is not subject to the whims of providence.~~